Past Projects

18+ years of promoting positive change. Pal Colonisers has conceptualised and delivered several projects around Haldwani since it was founded in 2003. Pal Colonisers have made a difference right from their first project Ramji Vihar; with many landmark projects under their banner such as the centrally located Palam City, the lush green Eco-town and the modern Pallazio, the company has organised real estate development into comfortable living spaces for many families today.
